The Ology gives kids of all ages a beginner's theology book to help them understand who God is and how we, as his children, relate to him. It is a starting point to learning theology and aims to create a hunger and desire in children to learn more as they grow older.

Sophie, a little girl upset after disobeying her parents, learns the basics of the gospel of grace from a neighborhood cat through a conversation based on the first question and answer of the Heidelberg Catechism: What is your only comfort in life and in death? That I am not my own, but belong . . . to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ.

In addition to basic Bible theology, Baby Believer board books are filled with quotations from the Bible, creeds, hymns, church fathers, and other articles of faith to help reinforce the content and provide intellectual handholds for older children who possess a greater capacity for learning and memorization.

Each book focuses on a true story from the Bible and teaches children wonderful truths about the Lord Jesus. Catalina Echeverri's illustrations are full of life, detail and lots of fun while always remaining faithful to the biblical text.
